

2015 Agriculture Week Coloring Contest

A partnership between the Georgia Department of Education, the Georgia Department of Agriculture & Georgia Grown in celebration of the Governor's Agriculture Day and National Agriculture Week.

Eligibility

- Any Georgia public school student enrolled in grades K-5 for the 2014-15 school year is eligible to participate.
- Each school is eligible to submit a top entry per grade level (K-5) to the Georgia Department of Education for state recognition.

Coloring Contest Guidelines

- The picture provided (on the next page) by the Georgia Department of Agriculture and Georgia Grown should be used as the official entry into the coloring contest.
- Coloring must be the original work of the student submitting the entry.
- The student's name, grade level, and school should be written on the back of the entry.

Timeline

- The coloring contest and other related activities are in correspondence with the Governor's Agriculture Day celebration on March 10, 2015, and the national Agriculture Week celebration on March 15-21.
- The top entries from each grade level (K-5) and each school are due to be submitted to the Georgia Department of Education no later than Friday, April 3.
- Entries submitted to the Georgia Department of Education can be submitted in hard copy form (mail) or electronic format (email), and must be received by the April 3 deadline.
- State winners will be announced via press release by April 17, 2015.

Mail entries to:

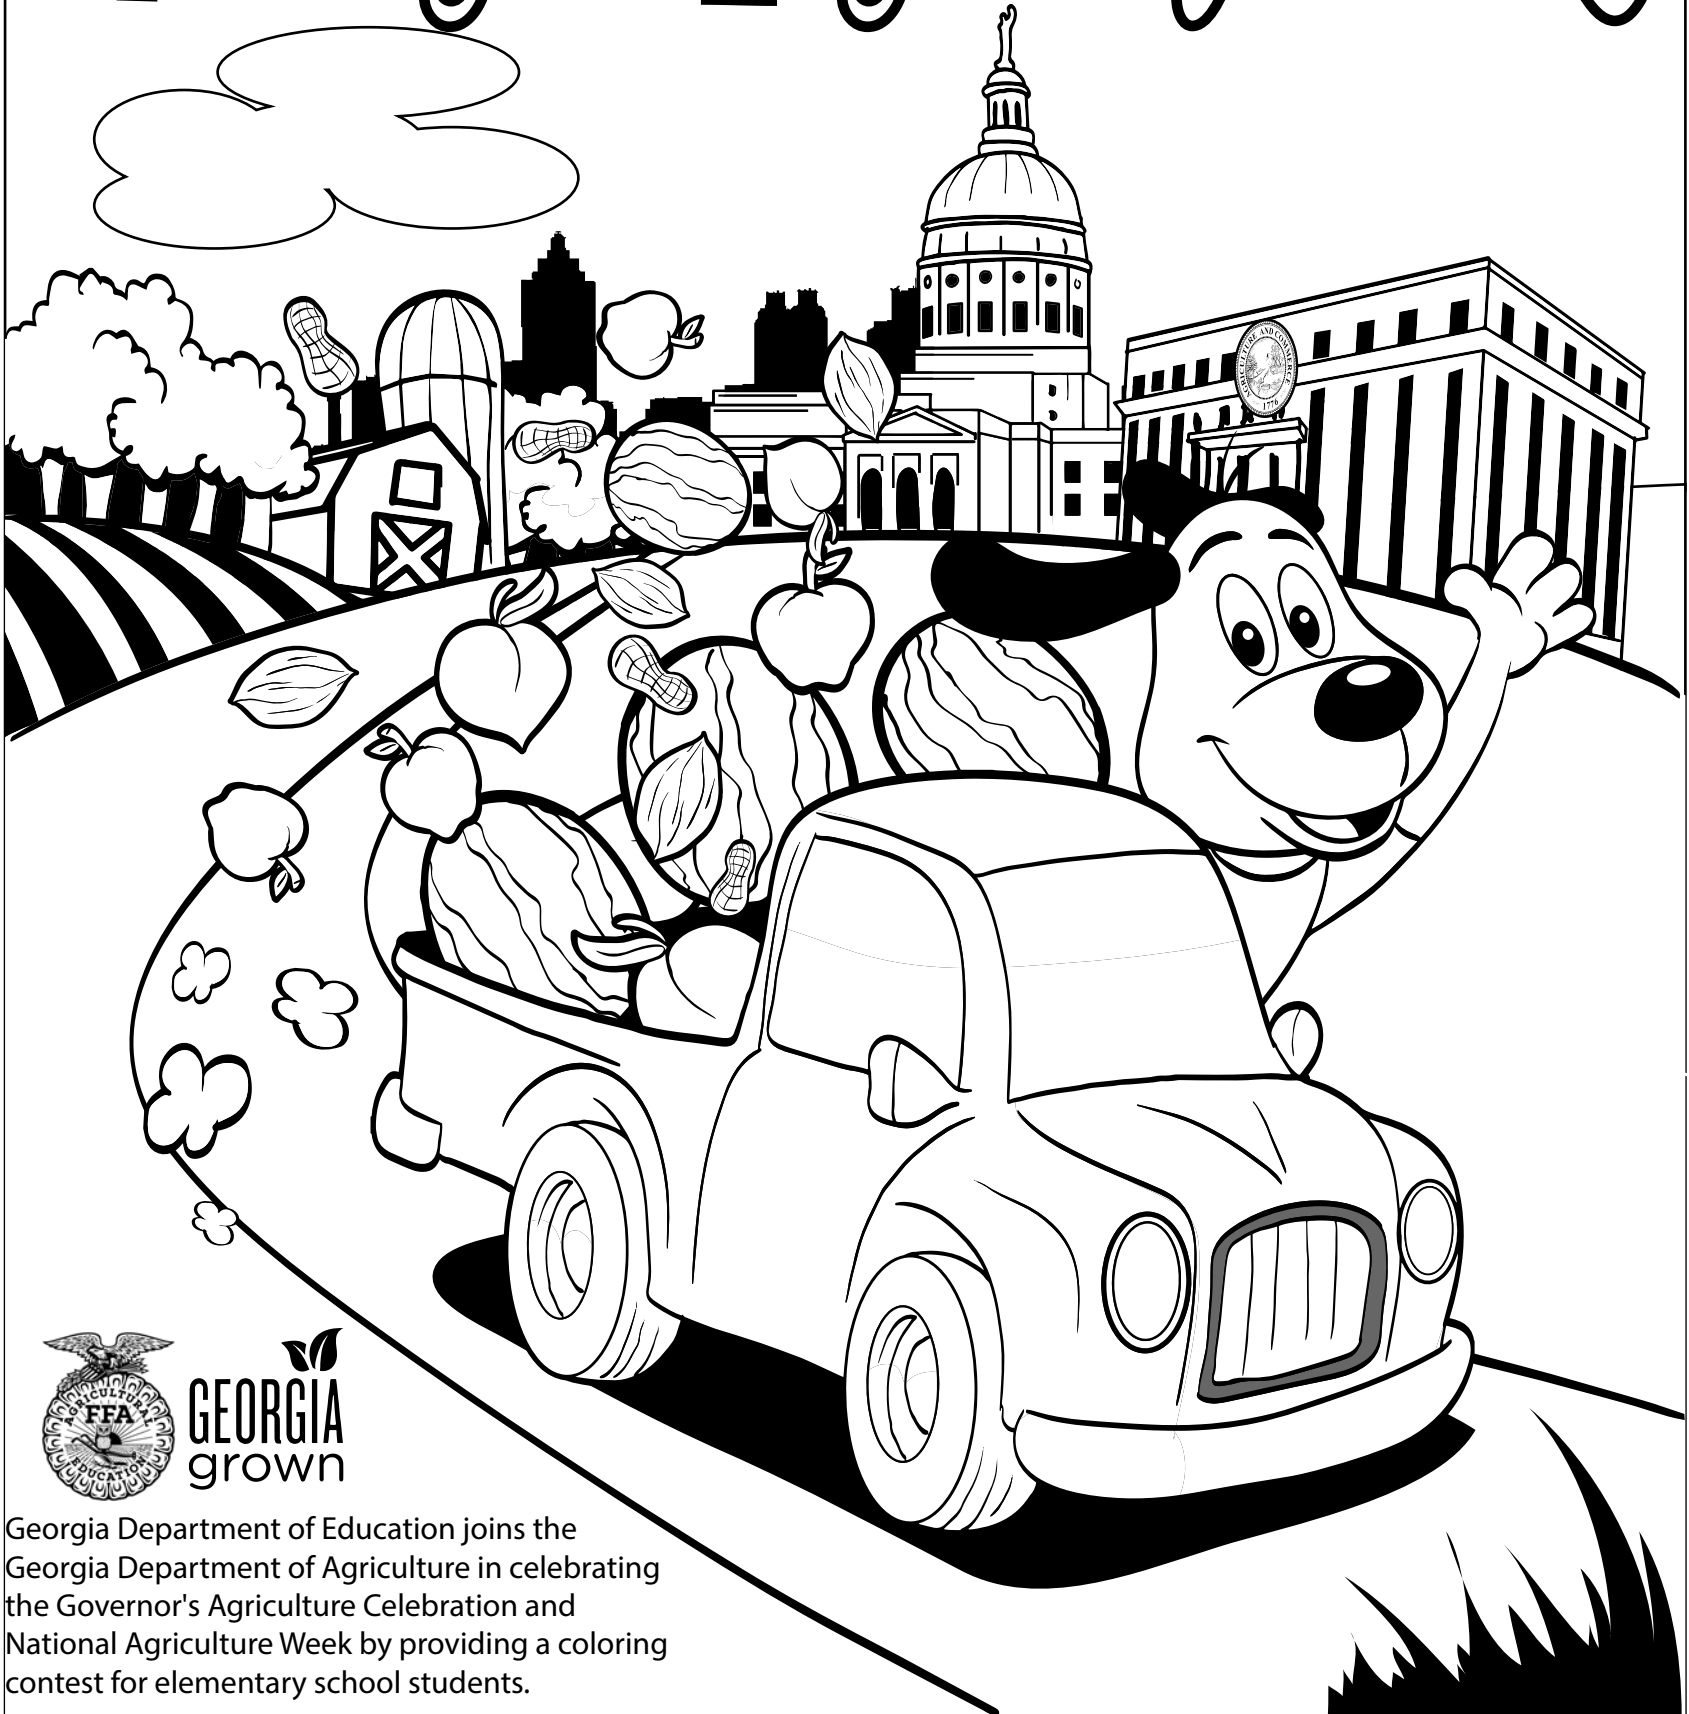

Georgia Department of Education
Agricultural Education Program
1752 Twin Towers East
Atlanta, Georgia 30334

Or Email to:

communications@doe.k12.ga.us

Georgia Ag Day 2015

Georgia Department of Education joins the Georgia Department of Agriculture in celebrating the Governor's Agriculture Celebration and National Agriculture Week by providing a coloring contest for elementary school students.